Flow Chart of the Loan System

How much is, and What is the Breakdown of the Loan?

- Monthly payment equivalent to the tuition fee per month: up to ¥50,000 (monthly)
 - Preparation fee for entering school: ¥200,000 (one time only with first payment)
 - Preparation fee for starting job ¥200,000 (one time only with the last payment)
 - Preparation fee for National Exam for Certified Care Workers: up to ¥40,000 (maximum of 2 years)
- ※NB: Living expenses might be added in, if needed if you are deemed to be in a welfare household or similar economic situation.

Who can Apply for the Loan?

Person who entered a care worker or social worker training facility (of University, college or vocational school) which is appointed both by the Minister of the Social Welfare and Labor and the Governor of Chiba Prefecture, and who has a will to be engaged in working for welfare facilities such as care houses in Chiba as a Certified Care Worker or a Certified Social Worker after graduation.

※NB: This loan is not available with other scholarships or support systems including any kind of National Subsidy such as Educational Subsidy of Living Welfare Loan, Vocational Training Course Benefits, or Job Seeker Support System.

What are the Requirements of Exemption of paying back the Loan?

All of the loan will be exempted if you meet all of 5 of the requirements below.

- ① If you registered as a Certified Care Worker or a Certified Social worker
- ② within a year after the graduation of the Care Worker Training School, and
- ③ engaged in a care work job or consultation support
- ④ in Chiba Prefecture, and
- ⑤ kept working for at least 5 years.

※NB: You will have to pay back the loan if you drop out of the training school and/or you quit the care work or consultation job, including if you never got a job of those at any of those places.

How to Apply

The training facilities (University, College or Vocational school) will take care of all the application documents on behalf of the new students after their entrance. A recommendation form from the school should be attached.
 ※NB: A joint guarantor will be required to apply.
